

ENGLISH

Key Focus:

Writing to persuade

- Identifying and analysing the structural features of a range of persuasive texts
- Looking at how emotive language can be used to persuade
- To plan and write a persuasive leaflet
- To plan and write a persuasive letter
- Compare and analyse a balanced argument
- To analyse, plan write and perform a persuasive speech

Grammar

- Modal verbs
- Advanced punctuation including parenthesis, colons and semi colons
- Using the passive voice
- Using connectives for contrast and comparison
- Rhetorical questions

MATHEMATICS

Key Focus:

Children will be able to:

- Know and identify the properties of 2D and 3D shapes
- To identify nets of any 3d shape
- Identify the properties of angles and lines.
- Use protractors to measure and draw angles accurately.
- Calculate missing measurements on a straight angle and a right angle.
- To identify missing angles in a quadrilateral or triangle
- Use simple algebraic formulas to find missing values
- Solve SATS style questions

SCIENCE

Key Focus:

Evolution and Inheritance

The children will look at the Scientific ideas of evolution and inheritance. They will:

- Identify key vocabulary and concepts related to Evolution and Inheritance
- Recognise that characteristics are passed from parents to offspring.
- Identify the key ideas of the theory of evolution.
- Explore how Mary Anning contributed to our understanding of fossils.
- Explain how a chosen animal has adapted to its habitat.
- Learn about and understand the importance of Charles Darwin.

History

Key Focus:

World War 2

In History we will be continuing to study WW2 and in particular how war affected children. We will also look at the after effects of the war and its impact today. To achieve this, we will:

- explain how the war affected the lives of children in different countries
- Know the impact the war had on everyday life; be able to explain why food rationing was introduced Explain peoples' suffering during the war and their courage and resilience.
- To be able to understand the importance of the end of the war and how families were reunited
- Know areas of conflict in the world today and that this impacting on children's lives.
- Debate whether there is peace in the world today and whether things are better today than they were at the time of the Second World War

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Key Focus:

Christianity and Humanists: Non-Religious people

- Look at differing opinions
- Identify and explore what happens when our values conflict
- Demonstrate an understanding of what matters to Christians and Humanists

PSHE

Key Focus:

- Understanding the importance of the UN Children's Rights.
- To understand the importance of the zones of regulation and how would they regulate their emotions.
- To understand the importance of road safety
- To understand the safety in the home and how this links with the 6'Rs and safeguarding
- To understand the importance of physical Health & Fitness
- To understand the importance of healthy Eating

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Key Focus:

Games – Hockey

Children will learn:

- the principles of attack and defence
- Finding and using space
- Changing speed and direction
- Marking and covering
- watching the ball and following through
- Explain what they accomplished and how things can be improved next time.