

Great Fire of London Workshop

Our Year 2 historians had an exciting time on Monday, 11th November, as they travelled back in time to Restoration Britain and took part in activities that immersed them in history. They re-enacted the events from the Great Fire of London and the Black Death in a workshop hosted by the Crew Company. Through drama and role-play, they commemorated this 'small mistake but with great consequences' in the 17th-century London.

Brookside Primary Open Evening

On Monday, 11th November, we proudly hosted our Brookside Open Evening, an event dedicated to showcasing the diverse subject areas and opportunities our school has to offer. The evening was a wonderful success, and it was heartwarming to see so many of you exploring our facilities, engaging with our staff, and learning about the vibrant community we have built at Brookside. Odd Socks Day

On Tuesday, 12th November, our school came alive with color and creativity as students participated in Odd Socks Day! Children proudly wore mismatched socks in all sorts of patterns, colors, and styles to celebrate individuality and promote the message of acceptance and kindness. This fun-filled day was a reminder that it's great to be different and that everyone deserves to feel included. A big thank you to all the families for their support in making this day so special! Let's keep spreading kindness and celebrating what makes us unique every day!

Children In Need Day!

On Friday, 15th November, our Brookside pupils took part in Children-In-Need day. The day was filled with vibrant colors, smiles, and a wonderful sense of giving, as our pupils wore non-uniform or something yellow to show their solidarity with this important charity. From bright yellow tops to creative costumes, the school was a sea of cheerful colors that reflected the generous hearts of our students, staff, and families. Together, we managed to raise an incredible amount of money to support children and young people in need across the UK. A huge thank you to everyone who donated, participated, and made this event such a meaningful success. Your contributions help make a real difference in the lives of so many. Let's continue spreading kindness and hope!
