

A Trip to the Countryside

Year 1 took an exciting journey to Odds Farm Park in High Wycombe on June 9th and 11th to learn about the countryside as a part of their Geography topic. The pupils petted the rabbits and fed the goats and sheep; some pupils were allowed to feed the pigs. There was an amazing adventure playground that the children played on and a sandy play area. After lunch there was a tractor ride to see the animals grazing in the fields, and the pupils and teachers finally went to play in the soft play area with big slides to play on. All of Year 1 pupils and teachers had a very enjoyable day learning about and experiencing the countryside.

A Day Across the Channel!

On Tuesday 9th June, ten of our Year 6 pupils enjoyed a memorable day trip to Boulogne-sur-Mer, France. The pupils visited a range of interesting places, including La Colonne de la Grande Armée, Le Marché aux Poissons (fish market), Les Jardins d'Auguste, the Mariette Egyptian Gardens, the Citadel, and La Cathédrale de Notre Dame des Miracles. They also enjoyed lunch at Restaurant Belle Époque, explored Auchan supermarket, travelled along the beautiful Côte d'Opale coast road, and spent time at Wissant Beach. The trip provided a wonderful opportunity to experience French culture, history and language firsthand. The pupils were excellent ambassadors for the school and thoroughly enjoyed their day.
